DATE	TIME	LOCATION	OFFENSE(S)	INCIDENT SUMMARY
7-27-24	2:27AM	5800 blk. Rose Avenue	Curfew Violation	Officers responded to a call of suspicious subjects in the parking lot and, on arrival, located 3 subjects who refused to talk or stop for them. It was discovered the subjects were all minors under the age of 18 who had left a residence without an adult's knowledge. All three were cited for curfew violations and released to their respective parents.
7-28-24	10:57 AM	5555 S. Brainard Ave, TJ Maxx	Battery	A customer reported that while inside the store, a male Hispanic subject wearing black pants and a black t-shirt made a comment about her feet and then grabbed her buttocks. Officers located the subject who denied intentionally touching the customer. The victim declined to prosecute the offender.
7-29-24	11:54AM	630 61st Street, Countryside Park	Criminal Damage to Property	2 male juveniles damaged the soccer goal at Countryside Park on 7-19-24. It is believed to be the same pair that damaged the soccer goals on 7-1-24.
7-30-24	1:46PM	140 Countryside Plaza, The Home Depot	Retail Theft	Loss prevention personnel advised that shortly before calling 911, a m/b subject with a thin build, black afro style hair, a black jacket and blue jeans ran out of the store with a Dyson vacuum without paying. The offender fled in a dark colored Nissan Maxima.
7-30-24	10:17PM	6301 Joliet Road, Rolling Lanes	Battery	Officers responded to the business for a report of two males fighting. Upon arrival, they determined the individuals were known to each other. An argument between them escalated and one of the individuals struck the other with a closed fist. The victim chose not to press charges.
7-31-24	4:29 PM	6007 LaGrange Road, Chick Fil A	Assault	The victim reported they were involved in a traffic altercation with another vehicle on 55th Street in McCook. The other vehicle followed the victim to Chick Fil A, parked next to her, and started banging on her windows while yelling at her to roll down her window and get out of the car. The victim never exited her vehicle out of fear that the other driver would harm her. Witnesses and video footage corroborated the victim's account. The other driver was later issued a local ordinance citation with a notice to appear.
