Date	Time	Location	Offense	Incident Summary
10-27-25	6:49 PM	LaGrange Road and 57th Street	Disorderly Conduct	The victim reported that, while stopped at a stop sign, the alleged offender approached the passenger side window of her vehicle and began yelling at her. Frightened, the victim began to drive away when the male offender swung a back pack at her vehicle, striking it. There was no visible damage on the car from where the back pack struck it. The responding officer spoke with the alleged offender who stated the victim almost struck him as he was about to cross the street so he began to yell at her. He stated that as the vehicle drove away it brushed against the backpack that he was holding in his hand.
